

BNSS, TERMS AND CONDITIONS (T&Cs)

Please read these carefully and ensure your entry complies with them.

The Bournemouth Natural Science Society (BNSS) is a registered charity whose aims have little changed since its formation in 1903: to promote study, interest and enjoyment in all branches of the Natural Sciences and History.

1. All photographs must be from the Dorset and Hampshire area
2. By submitting your photographs, you are automatically agreeing to our terms and conditions
3. Closing date for submitting your photographs is November 30th 2023 and you send your photographs via email photo@bnss.org.uk
4. Please include the category, full name and contact details with every entry
5. BNSS reserve the right to refuse any entry to the competition
6. BNSS reserves the right to modify these terms and conditions without notice.
7. All enquiries from entrants regarding the Competition should be made via email, photo@bnss.org.uk.
8. A caption can be submitted with every entry into the competition, such as location or any special circumstances the photo was taken
9. We will not return any photographs please keep a copy
10. Images should not be enlarged digitally, any photo manipulation should keep to the minimum
11. The judging is performed by a panel of independent judges, selected & appointed by BNSS. Judging will be anonymous.
12. All photographs must be yours
13. The photographer agrees to grant BNSS a non-exclusive License (the "License") to reproduce, publish and exhibit the copyright owner's images upon entering the competition including their name
14. You agree to your submitted photos being used in any way and any funds generated through their use to be retained by BNSS, BNSS is a charity and we are welcome any donations (BNSS Charity number 1165951)
15. The competition excludes professional photographers
16. You must be a "young explorer" to enter the "young explorers" category of the competition.